Committee Reports

Ms. Yeager reminded the board that they are required to be members to serve on the board. Those who have not yet renewed will be reminded.

Ms. Yeager led a discussion of the 2021 committees and read the description of each committee. Each board member is required to serve on at least one committee. Members are asked to send their committee selections to Lisa by January 8.

Finance Committee

Mr. Wilhelm reported that the Finance Committee did not meet. He led a discussion of the 2020 financials. We are projecting a close of around $70,000 in excess.

Donations remain strong and include a legacy gift.

There was an unexpected expense due to vandalism of vehicles.

Old Business

Housing and Re-In-Carnation Committee

Ms. Raymond reported on various proposals being explored for project management for the reimagining of the Re-In-Carnation property as a new store, housing or a combination of both.

Ms. Brooks joined the meeting.

Ms. Raymond led a discussion about employing a consultant to help evaluate proposals. It is anticipated to cost up to $15,000. Work will include presenting options, taking into account zoning, GIS maps and the feasibility and requirements of various options. The work will not include detailed plans at this point.

Ms. Yeager will send the board the proposals under consideration and share what the committee asked of those who submitted proposals.

Ms. Raymond led a discussion about what to do about the house while we are figuring out the larger project. Demolishing house could cost up to approximately $20,000.

Motion by	Ms. McCorkle
Description	Motion to get quotes and proceed with the removal of the building which previously housed RIC.
